

Special Needs Program

Cleary School provides services for children with additional challenges to their hearing loss. Our special education programs provide services for children with learning disabilities, developmental delays, orthopedic impairments, visual impairments, autism and multiple disabilities. An Individualized Education Program (IEP) is developed for each child, designed to meet the academic, social and emotional needs of the individual student. The program is designed to prepare our students for future independence.

WE OFFER

- Teachers Certified in Deaf or Special Education
- Individualized Instruction
- Modified New York State Curriculum
- Goal Oriented Tasks based on IEP Guidelines
- Highly Structured Lessons and Activities
- Language Development
- Augmentative and/or Alternative Communication Systems
- Adaptive Equipment and Furniture to Meet Physical Needs
- Summer School Program
- Occupational and Physical Therapy
- Individual Speech and Language Instruction
- Oral Motor Therapy
- Life Skills Instruction
- Pre-Vocational Training
- Team Evaluation and Staffing Structure
- Coordination of Visits and Services with Consulting Specialists

